Will this new mailing address be your new principal residence? ☒ YES ☐ NO

A person or married couple can only have one principal residence. The "Principal residence" is the one dwelling where the homeowner regularly resides and is the location designated by the owner for the legal purposes of voting, obtaining a driver's license, and filing income tax returns" (COMAR 18.07.03.01 (B)(3)). Only the owner's principal residence is eligible for the Homestead and the Homeowner's tax credit and other State and local tax credits and programs. In addition, only the owner's principal residence is eligible for "semi-annual" property tax payment program. The Department may request documentation to verify that a dwelling is the principal residence of a homeowner (§ 2-218(a) Tax-Property Article, Annotated Code of Maryland). More information about the Department's tax credit programs can be found on our website at dat.maryland.gov.

I declare under the penalties of perjury that I have the authority to make this request and that it has been examined by me and to the best of my knowledge and belief is true, correct and complete.
